

Send All My Friends to School

Linh, from Vietnam

Meet Linh. She is seven years old.

Linh lives with her family in Vietnam.

Vietnam is a country in Asia.

Linh has a paralyzed leg.

Her mother and father carry her to school.

There is no bus to take her there.

Linh finds being disabled hard.

She feels different from the other children.

She can't join in with jumping rope at lunch time anymore.

Linh says, "I love my school. I like trees in my school.

I like flowers in my school.

I like playing with friends."

Photos: © Richard P King/Oxfam

This project is funded by the European Union.

