

Story

KS1 – Sorie's story

Meet Sorie. He is fourteen-years-old.

He lives with his family in Sierra Leone.

Sierra Leone is a country in West Africa.

Sorie has low vision. When he was younger he did not go to school.

When Sorie was ten he went to a school for blind children. This was far away from home.

Sorie did very well at school.

He learned to read braille and type with a typewriter.

When Sorie was twelve he went to the school near to his home.

Today, he is learning to write in large letters.

Sorie has many friends at school.

They all want him to have the help he needs.

Why should Sorie have the help he needs?

Photos: Sightsavers

This publication has been produced with the assistance of the European Union. The contents of this publication are the sole responsibility of ActionAid UK and can in no way be taken to reflect the views of the European Union.

This project is funded by the European Union

