

LEADERSHIP RESOURCES FOR SCHOOLS & YOUNG PEOPLE

The Inspire Leadership workshops use activities adapted from the following resources. They are recommended for developing young people's leadership skills in school. Put student leadership into practice with www.sendmyfriend.org

Speaking out is an important element of student leadership

GET GLOBAL

(Oxfam et al - 2003)

<https://bit.ly/3OSIV17>

Get Global is a practical guide to global citizenship for KS3 & KS4. It was conceived in 2003 as a complete programme of study for active child-led citizenship in schools. To-day it's value is primarily as a comprehensive source and one-stop shop of relevant ideas, participatory activities and games for teachers of all Key Stages to dip into.

YOUTH LEADERSHIP

(Oxfam - 2023)

<https://bit.ly/3KB5SwQ>

This brief guide provides a framework and practical tips to help teachers build young people's leadership and teamwork at school. It draws upon the activities in Get Global and Oxfam's experience of leading young people's leadership projects in UK & European schools for the Erasmus+ programme.

CAMPAIGN PLANNER FOR CHILDREN

(Save the Children - 2020)

<https://bit.ly/3YwZXP9>

The Campaign Planner for Children is a child-centred approach to campaign planning, in which young people have the tools, resources and confidence to develop and implement their own effective campaigns in safe and meaningful ways. The resource is designed as a complete curriculum for young people's campaigning both outside and inside school, and has many ideas, activities and games which teachers may dip into.

YOUTH LEADERSHIP GUIDE

(Send My Friend to School - 2023)

<https://bit.ly/3saaHqz>

The Youth Leadership Guide briefly outlines how young people may use different leadership skills to run a successful Send My Friend to School campaign in their school.

GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP GUIDES

(Oxfam - 2015-2019)

<https://bit.ly/47wfOSf>

Oxfam's Global Citizenship Guides outline the key principles of taking a global approach to teaching and learning, as well as practical guidance for embedding it into lessons by using participatory child-led approaches.
